About Duquesne University

Who we are today has a lot to do with who we were yesterday. Founded more than 135 years ago by the Congregation of the Holy Spirit, Duquesne was built on a core set of values that guides us even now.

As one of the nation’s top Catholic universities, our Spiritan tradition means a lot to us. You’ll see it in the way we treat one another, in the way we learn and in how we view the world. We strive to provide a well-rounded education that will challenge you academically while nourishing your spiritual and ethical development.

Today, Duquesne is home to 9 schools of study and serves more than 10,000 students. We boast a 15:1 student-faculty ratio with 80 undergraduate programs; 85 master’s, doctoral and professional programs; and 22 post-graduate certificate programs.
About the Duquesne School of Nursing

We’ve spent the past 80 years serving as a pioneer in nursing education:

- First university in the nation to offer an online PhD in Nursing (1997)
- First university in Pennsylvania to grant a BSN degree (1937)
- First dual undergraduate degree in biomedical engineering and nursing
- One of the first forensic nursing programs in the country
- First to offer a one-of-a-kind PhD in Nursing Ethics program

Today, our school is recognized by the National League for Nursing as a Center of Excellence, and our degree programs are consistently ranked among the nation’s best by U.S. News & World Report.

Compassion and service are at the core of our nursing curriculum and remain a critical component in our approach to education. No matter where you are in your career, we have the experience and drive to ensure you grow as a person, care provider and nursing leader.
Accreditation and Affiliations

Set yourself apart from 99% of nurses.
The need for doctorally prepared nurses has never been higher. And as it stands, less than 1% of all U.S. nurses hold this in-demand credential. If you're ready to maximize your scope of practice, we're ready to help you do it.

Choose Duquesne for your online DNP, and you can gain the advanced expertise to:

- Drive organizational effectiveness
- Influence healthcare policy
- Design new models for patient care
- Provide leadership for evidence-based practice in nursing

My experience at Duquesne has been like no other. The flexibility and support of the faculty is without parallel. The program allows me to continue to practice full time as a family nurse practitioner while working from home on my doctorate.

— Sarah Thorn, DNP Student
